Only a fragment of the small part of the wall (was preserved, and only 1 final soldier course. Probably same as [3488], the main party wall. It seems that [3488] has deeper foundations, but when they were a certain level was reached in the construction of it, the internal wall was integrated in it. However, it is hard to say because of the horizontal junction [↑].
