

Handwritten pedigree chart showing a family tree structure. The chart consists of three rows of boxes connected by lines. The top row has six boxes, with the second box containing the handwritten number 3747 and the third box containing 3782. A vertical line connects the second box to a box below it containing the handwritten number 3836. This box is connected to a horizontal line, which then connects to a row of six boxes at the bottom. The second box from the left in this bottom row contains the handwritten number 3839.
