Interpretation:	Internal	External	Structural
possible bedding trench filled by (1352). The edge of this cut was clearly observed when layer (1332) was fully exposed. After removal of (1332) [1345] was only partially visible in the southern extension of layer (1367). We also noticed that at the base of the cut are to be tiles fragments were laying flat into the edge of the cut.
